

1.95
P96

FARM SECURITY ADMINISTRATION
List of Available Publications

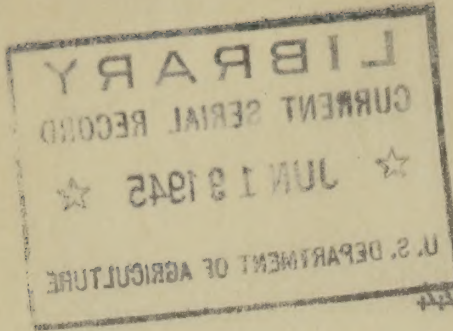

January, 1944

The following publications are available free of charge from the Division of Information, Farm Security Administration, Washington 25, D. C. (Field employes should request material from the Regional IF Division on Form AD 74.)

General Information

128. Farm Security Services To Rural Families
A brief summary of the present program of the Farm Security Administration, with current figures showing the scope of its work.
2. Farm Security Administration
Booklet describing FSA program, with a discussion of the problems of small farmers and the methods which were developed to help overcome them.
117. How the Farm Security Administration Can Help Farmers Produce More Food
Brief outline of the various forms of FSA assistance available to family-type farmers.
118. Authorizations for the Work of the Farm Security Administration
List of the Executive Orders and legislative enactments which have conferred authority on the Farm Security Administration and its predecessor agencies, with a short explanation of each authorization.
119. Discussion of the Farm Security Administration Program at Senate Subcommittee Hearings on 1944 Appropriations
Reprint of pages 615-666 of the hearings on the Agricultural Department of Appropriation Bill for 1944, by the Senate Subcommittee on the Committee on Appropriations, May 21, 1943.
120. Statement before the Special Committee of the House Investigating the Farm Security Administration, June 29, 1943
Detailed reply to charges against the FSA previously made before the Committee.
121. Statement Before the Special Committee of the House Investigating the Farm Security Administration, November 22, 1943
Statement by newly appointed administrator, Frank W. Hancock, defining policies and objectives of the Farm Security Administration.

APR 8 1945

FARM SECURITY ADMINISTRATION
List of Available Publications

January, 1944

The following publications are available free of charge from the Division of Information, Farm Security Administration, Washington 25, D. C. (Field employees should request material from the Regional IF Division on Form AD 74.)

General Information

- 128. Farm Security Services To Rural Families
A brief summary of the present program of the Farm Security Administration, with current figures showing the scope of its work.
- 2. Farm Security Administration
Booklet describing FSA program, with a discussion of the problems of small farmers and the methods which were developed to help overcome them.
- 117. How the Farm Security Administration Can Help Farmers Produce More Food
Brief outline of the various forms of FSA assistance available to family-type farmers.
- 118. Authorizations for the Work of the Farm Security Administration
List of the Executive Orders and legislative enactments which have conferred authority on the Farm Security Administration and its predecessor agencies, with a short explanation of each authorization.
- 119. Discussion of the Farm Security Administration Program at Senate Subcommittee Hearings on 1944 Appropriations
Reprint of pages 615-666 of the hearings on the Agricultural Department of Appropriation Bill for 1944, by the Senate Subcommittee on the Committee on Appropriations, May 21, 1943.
- 120. Statement before the Special Committee of the House Investigating the Farm Security Administration, June 29, 1943
Detailed reply to charges against the FSA previously made before the Committee.
- 121. Statement before the Special Committee of the House Investigating the Farm Security Administration, November 22, 1943
Statement by newly appointed administrator, Frank W. Hancock, defining policies and objectives of the Farm Security Administration.

APR 3 1945

Food Production

123. Farm Security Borrowers Increase Food Production

A short, interpretive summary of the results of a survey of 1942 agricultural production of FSA borrowers.

Small Farmers Do a Big Job

Article telling how individual families on the FSA program worked to increase 1942 food production. Reprinted from Survey Graphic, April, 1943.

The Small Farmer Goes to War

Article describing work of Negro farmers in war food production. Reprinted from The Crisis, January, 1943.

War and the Low-Income Farmer

Article outlining how low-income farmers can make maximum contributions to war food supplies. Reprinted from Land Policy Review, January, 1942.

Rural Rehabilitation

131. Rural Rehabilitation, Better Farming--Better Living

113. Adult Education in the FSA Program

Article explaining how FSA borrowers learn better farming and homemaking methods through practical supervision. Reproduced from Illinois Adult Education Notes.

Big Discovery in the South

Article telling what FSA's work of rehabilitation has meant in the lives of tenant farmers and sharecroppers. Reprinted from Collier's, August 1, 1942.

125. They, Too, Produce for Victory

A study of progress made by 500 rural families who formerly depended on relief. Based on annual reports of 20 FSA supervisors, 1938-41.

38. Coffee County, Alabama

The story of a concerted effort to rehabilitate 600 low-income farm families in one Southern County.

42. Greene County, Georgia

Pamphlet describing an intensive, county-wide rehabilitation program.

46. Southeast Missouri: A Laboratory for the Cotton South

Description of FSA assistance to sharecroppers and farm laborers in the seven Missouri "bootheel" counties.

Food for Growth

Leaflet for children, explaining good nutrition. Issued by the

Food for Growth
Leaflet for children, explaining good nutrition. Issued by the

46. Southeast Missouri: A Laboratory for the Cotton South
Description of FSA assistance to sharecroppers and farm laborers in the seven Missouri "cottonbelt" counties.

42. Greene County, Georgia
Pamphlet describing an intensive, county-wide rehabilitation program.

38. Coffee County, Alabama
The story of a concerted effort to rehabilitate 600 low-income farm families in one Southern County.

125. They, Too, Produce for Victory
A study of progress made by 500 rural families who formerly depended on relief. Based on annual reports of 20 FSA supervisors, 1938-41.

Big Discovery in the South
Article telling what FSA's work of rehabilitation has meant in the lives of tenant farmers and sharecroppers. Reprinted from Collier's, August 1, 1942.

113. Adult Education in the FSA Program
Article explaining how FSA borrowers learn better farming and homemaking methods through practical supervision. Reproduced from Illinois Adult Education Notes.

131. Rural Rehabilitation. Better Farming--Better Living

Rural Rehabilitation

War and the Low-Income Farmer
Article outlining how low-income farmers can make maximum contributions to war food supplies. Reprinted from Land Policy Review, January, 1942.

The Small Farmer Goes to War
Article describing work of Negro farmers in war food production.
Reprinted from The Crisis, January, 1943.

Small Farmers Do a Big Job
Article telling how individual families on the FSA program worked to increase 1942 food production. Reprinted from Survey Graphic, April, 1943.

123. Farm Security Borrowers Increase Food Production
A short, interpretive summary of the results of a survey of 1942 agricultural production of FSA borrowers.

Food Production

Bureau of Home Economics in cooperation with the Farm Security Administration.

Cooperation Among Farmers

17. Good Neighbor
Leaflet explaining the group service loans made by the FSA.
92. Buying and Selling the Co-op Way
Pamphlet explaining how Farm Security borrowers organize and use county purchasing and marketing associations, with examples of the benefits and cash savings achieved.
19. Managing the Small Farmers' Co-op
Pamphlet discussing the fundamentals of successful operation of the small cooperative.
106. Sharing Farm Equipment
Pamphlet, with examples to show how neighboring farmers share the cost and upkeep of farm machinery, and a discussion of practices found useful in successful group operation of equipment.
108. How Neighborhoods and Communities Aid Farm Security Administration Group Programs
Discussion of the natural groupings of rural people in relation to the organization of neighborhood study groups, community services, and other rural groups.

Tenant Purchase Loans

23. Farm Purchase Loans
Question-and-answer leaflet explaining the tenant purchase program of the Farm Security Administration, as authorized by the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act.
25. Explanation of Variable Payment Plan for Repaying Tenant Purchase Loans
Question-and-answer leaflet explaining loan repayments based on annual net income.
126. The First in 29,000
Story of the first family to pay out a tenant purchase loan from earned farm income, completing payment of their 40-year loan in four years. Reprinted from The Progressive Farmer, January, 1943.

Medical Care

75. Group Medical Care for Farmers
Pamphlet discussing the Farm Security Administration medical care plans for FSA families.

Bureau of Home Economics in cooperation with the Farm Security Administration.

Cooperation Among Farmers

17. Good Neighbor Leaflet explaining the group service loans made by the FSA.

18. Buying and Selling the Co-op Way Pamphlet explaining how Farm Security borrowers organize and use county purchasing and marketing associations, with examples of the benefits and cash savings achieved.

19. Managing the Small Farmer's Co-op Pamphlet discussing the fundamentals of successful operation of the small cooperative.

100. Sharing Farm Equipment Pamphlet, with examples to show how neighboring farmers share the cost and upkeep of farm machinery, and a discussion of practices found useful in successful group operation of equipment.

108. How Neighborhoods and Communities Aid Farm Security Administration Group Programs Discussion of the natural groupings of rural people in relation to the organization of neighborhood study groups, community services, and other rural groups.

Tenant Purchase Loans

23. Farm Purchase Loans Question-and-answer leaflet explaining the tenant purchase program of the Farm Security Administration, as authorized by the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act.

25. Explanation of Variable Payment Plan for Repaying Tenant Purchase Loans Question-and-answer leaflet explaining loan repayments based on annual net income.

126. The First in $2,000 Story of the first family to pay out a tenant purchase loan from earned farm income, completing payment of their 40-year loan in four years. Reprinted from The Progressive Farmer, January, 1943.

Medical Care

75. Group Medical Care for Farmers Pamphlet discussing the Farm Security Administration medical care plans for FSA families.

116. Health for the Backwoods

Article by J. D. Ratcliff on the FSA medical care program.
Reprinted from The New Republic as Condensed in The Reader's Digest, July, 1942.

Medical Service Plans of the Farm Security Administration

Report of A. M. Simons, assistant director, Bureau of Medical Economics, American Medical Association, presented at the annual conference of secretaries and editors of constituent state medical associations, November 21, 1942 .

Post-War Rural Hospital Planning

Article by Dr. Frederick D. Mott, chief medical officer, Farm Security Administration, reproduced from Hospital Yearbook for 1943.

Water Facilities

127. Water In The West

Explanation of the water facilities loan program administered by the Farm Security Administration in the 17 Western States.

Background Material

81. Report of the President's Committee on Farm Tenancy
Dated February, 1937.

85. The Cooperative Movement in Nova Scotia
Condensed from a series of articles written by Cortez A. M. Ewing, University of Oklahoma professor, which appeared in the Daily Oklahoman.

86. Articles on Irish Tenancy
Articles by John Caufield, reproduced from The Progressive Farmer.

FSA: A Record of Achievement

Two articles by Alexander Nunn on all phases of the Farm Security Administration program in the South. Reproduced from The Progressive Farmer, June, July, August, 1942.

116.

Health for the Backwoods
Article by J. D. Batcliff on the FSA medical care program.
Reprinted from The New Republic as Condensed in The Reader's Digest, July, 1942.

Medical Service Plans of the Farm Security Administration
Report of A. M. Simons, assistant director, Bureau of Medical Economics, American Medical Association, presented at the annual conference of secretaries and editors of consistant state medical associations, November 21, 1942.

Post-War Rural Hospital Planning
Article by Dr. Frederick D. Mott, chief medical officer,
Farm Security Administration, reproduced from Hospital
Yearbook for 1943.

Water Facilities

127.

Water in the West
Explanation of the water facilities loan program administered by the Farm Security Administration in the 17 Western States.

Background Material

81.

Report of the President's Committee on Farm Tenancy
Dated February, 1937.

82.

The Cooperative Movement in Nova Scotia
Condensed from a series of articles written by Cortes
A. M. Ewing, University of Oklahoma professor, which appeared in the Daily Oklahoman.

86.

Articles on Irish Tenancy
Articles by John Confield, reproduced from The Progressive Farmer.

FSA: A Record of Achievement
Two articles by Alexander Nunn on all phases of the Farm Security Administration program in the South. Reproduced from The Progressive Farmer, June, July, August, 1942.